INSTRUCTIONS,

Containing conditions to be incorporated in the contracts, to the extent the department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on rail-road and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail bags.

2. On routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3 On railroad and steamboat lines, British and Canada mails, when offered, are to be conveyed without additional pay: also, the route agents of the department, for whose exclusive use, while travelling with the mails, a commodious car, or apartment in the centre of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and adapted to the convenient assortment and due security of the mails, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from, and deliver it into, the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted for the performance of all the side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connexion with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Deduction will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind, or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying commercial intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of post-masters, or the affidavits of other creditable persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a post office; for suffering it (owing either to the unsuitableness of the place or manner of carrying it) to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat, on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the Post Office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for assigning the contract without the assent of the Postmaster General; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals, and make them conform in all cases to connexions with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law a pro rata increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers, if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of increase of speed, relinquish the contract by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The Postmaster General may also curtail or discontinue the service, in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount dispensed with, whenever, in his opinion, the public interests do not require the same, or in case he desires to supersede it by a different grade of transportation.

9. Payments will be made for the service by collections from, or drafts on, postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter —say in February, May, August, and November.

10. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied be correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c. and all toll bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such grounds, can be considered; nor for bridges destroyed, or other obstructions, increasing distance, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after the advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be supplied with extra pay if the distance be not increased.

11. The Postmaster General is prohibited by law from knowingly making a contract for the transportation of the mails with any person who shall have entered into, or proposed to enter into, any combination to prevent the making of any bid for a mail contract by any other person or persons, or who shall have made any agreement, or shall have given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever, or to do, or not to do, any thing whatever, in order to induce any other person or persons not to bid for a mail contract.

12. A bid received after time, or without the guarantee required by law, or that combines several routes in one sum of compensation, cannot be considered in competition with a regular proposal, reasonable in amount.

13. Bidders should, in all cases, first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately, for different service: and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

14. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal.

15. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address) and those of each member of a firm where a company offers, sho'd be distinctly stated; also, the mode of conveyance, if a higher mode than horseback be intended. The words "with due celerity, certainty, and security," inserted to indicate the mode of conveyance, will constitute a "star bid." When a "star bid" is intended no specific conveyance must be named.

16. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed form of proposal furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

No altered bid can be considered, and no bid once submitted can be withdrawn.

Each bid must be guarantied by two responsible persons. General guarantees cannot be admitted.

17. The bid should be sealed; superscribed "mail Proposals, State of ——" addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General," Contract Office, and sent by mail, not by or to an agent, and Postmasters will not enclose Proposals, (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

18. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the first of July, 1856, but the service must be commenced on the mail day next after that date, whether the contracts be executed or not. No proposition for transfers will be considered until the contracts are executed in due form and received at the department; and then no transfers will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons therefor are given, to be determined by the department.

19. Postmasters at offices on or near railroads, but more than eighty rods from a station, will, immediately after the 10th of April next, report their exact distance from the nearest station, and how they are otherwise supplied with the mail, to enable the Postmaster General to direct a mail messenger supply from the first of July next.

20. Section 18 of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1846, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let, "in every case, to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarrntees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation." Under this law a new description of bids has been received. It does not specify a mode of conveyance, but engages to take the entire mail each trip with celerity, certainty, and security, using the terms of the law. These bids are styled, from the manner in which they are designated on the books of the department, "star bid," and they will be construed as providing for the conveyance of the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security."

In all cases where the lowest grade of service is believed to be sufficient, the lowest bid will be accepted, if duly guarantied, in preference to a "star" or specified bid.

When the lowest bid is not a "star" bid, and specifies either no mode or an inadequate mode of conveyance, it will not be accepted, but set aside for a specific bid proposing the necessary service.

When the bid does not specify a mode of conveyance, also when it proposes to carry "according to the advertisement," but without such specification, it will be considered as a proposal for horseback service.

21. A modification of a bid, in any of its essential terms, is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors, and sureties are distinctly notified that, on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them. (See 27th section of the act of July 2, 1836.)

22. The contracts will be substantially in the forms heretofore used in this department, except in the respects particularly mentioned in these instructions.

24. Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster at one of the places before named, or a Judge of a court of record.

James Campbell,
Postmaster General.

THE BEDFORD GAZETTE.

Bedford, Feb. 15, 1856.

G. W. Bowman, Editor and Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. JAMES BUCHANAN.

☞ The Democratic Meeting of last Monday evening was one of the largest, most respectable, and enthusiastic, ever held in Bedford county, and the entire unanimity of feeling which prevailed, gives the strongest assurance of a handsome democratic majority at the next election.

On the subject of the Presidency, there is but one opinion in Bedford county. Whilst the entire Democracy accord to President Pierce the character of an able Statesman, an accomplished Gentleman, and a true Democrat, they are unanimously of opinion that the time has arrived when JAMES BUCHANAN should be selected to preside over this mighty Republic; and, entertaining this view, they have given the most pointed instructions to our Delegates to the 4th of March Convention to select such Delegates only to the National Convention as are known to be the uncompromising friends of James Buchanan.

In accordance with the will of the people, thus emphatically expressed, we this day raise to the mast-head of the Gazette, the name dear to every Democrat in the Commonwealth—and have the most abiding confidence that he will be the choice of the Convention which will assemble at Cincinnati in June next.

We have never before known Pennsylvania so decided for any candidate as she now is for Mr. Buchanan. Whilst the Democrats go for him to a man, thousands of old line Whigs are anxious to have an opportunity to vote for him.

With James Buchanan as our leader, Pennsylvania is good for Thirty Thousand Majority against any man or any combination that can be brought into the field against him.

☞ We are under obligations to Hon. WM. BIGLER, of the U. S. Senate, for a very valuable Public Document.

☞ BEDFORD BAR.—In comparing our Bar with others, we are decidedly of opinion that it is equal to any other in Pennsylvania. Better Lawyers—better looking men—or more accomplished gentlemen than those composing the Bar in Bedford, cannot be found any where. As a citizen of the place, we feel an honest pride in having such a Bench and such a Bar.

☞ We invite the especial attention of our readers to the remarks of Mr. Smith, of Cambria, which will be found in another column. They are pointed, forcible, and true, and will carry conviction to the minds of all candid men. Our members, Messrs. Smith and Bernhard, are doing their duty like men, for which they will be triumphantly sustained by their constituents.

☞ The Democracy of Bedford County are unanimously opposed to the "Jug Law," as will be seen by the resolution passed on this subject at the late meeting.

Hon. James Buchanan.—The Pennsylvanian publishes an extract from a private letter to a gentleman of this State, in which, referring to the connection of his name with the Presidency, Mr. Buchanan says:

"This I neither desired nor expected. The movement in my favor has, therefore, originated without my previous knowledge or consent, and I should be quite satisfied should another be selected. The next will be the most important and responsible Presidential term since the last war with England, or, perhaps, since the origin of the government. Both our foreign and domestic affairs will require the guidance of an able, firm and skilful pilot to steer the vessel of State clear of the breakers. I pray Heaven that the best man may be selected for the crisis, and to me it is a matter of indifference whether he comes from the North or the South, the East or the West."

The entire Union will respond "Amen" to this prayer, and that the best man may be selected in view of the delicate position of our affairs both at home and abroad.

Bad News.—On Friday a dispatch from Washington informed us that Col. John W. Forney was lying dangerously ill of inflammation of the bowels; and on Saturday, a similar dispatch announces that Gen. Cass fell on the steps of the Patent Office, and was seriously injured. We trust that both these reports were exaggerated, and that the Nation will be spared the loss of these eminent citizens.

We have learned that Gen. Cass is improving—and it is also hoped that Col. Forney is better, from the fact that no additional dispatch is received concerning him.

☞ Nimrod Strickland, Esq., of West Chester, is strongly urged in several quarters for the nomination of Canal Commissioner.—Mr. S. is an honest, upright man and a good Democrat, and possesses the requisite business qualifications for a faithful discharge of the duties of the office. He made a good Editor, and we have no doubt would make an excellent Canal Commissioner.

☞ We are indebted to the Hon. Wm. M. Piatt, of the State Senate, for valuable bublic documents, for which he has our thanks.

CONFEREE MEETING.

Senatorial Conference met at the Hotel of Mr. John Hafer on last Tuesday morning and organized by electing Mr. Daniel Fore, President, and John P. Reed, Esq. Secretary.

Conferees for Bedford county—Maj. Saml. Davis, John Hafer and John P. Reed.

Fulton County—Messrs. Daniel Fore, Saml. Michael, and George Whetstone.

The names of Wm. M. Hall and John S. Robison, Esqrs. having been put in nomination,

On motion of John P. Reed, Esq. WM. M. HALL, Esq. was unanimously chosen the Senatorial delegate to the State Convention.

DANIEL FORE, President.
John P. Reed, Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETING.

GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE.

In accordance with previous notice given, an immense Meeting of the Democracy of Bedford county assembled at the Court House on last Monday evening, and organized by electing ISAAC MENGEL, Esq. President—General James Burns, Jr. Thomas Robison, Cadwalader Evans, Isaac Kensinger, Thomas Speer, Esq. Maj. James Patton, Col. F. D. Beegle, Major Moses McIlwaine, John Sill, Archibald Blair, Esq. Archibald Perdew, Esq. and Josiah Miller, Esq. Vice Presidents—and Messrs. John P. Reed, J. H. Schell, Capt. Wm. States, and Jno. W. Crisman Secretaries.

The meeting thus organized, a committee of two from each township and borough in the county were selected to go into Convention to report resolutions and select conferees.

The Convention having retired, the meeting was addressed by Messrs. William P. Schell, John Cessna, Geo. W. Bowman, and Wm. M. Hall.

Mr. WM. M. HALL, Chairman of the Convention, made the following report, unanimously adopted by that body, which also received the unanimous endorsement of the meeting.

John P. Reed, Esq. then made report of a plan for the future organization of the party, which he prefaced with some appropriate and forcible remarks. The plan suggested was unanimously adopted, and will be published hereafter.

It is due to Judge Schell to say that he opposed the resolution for the repeal of the Jug Law, but in this he stood solitary and alone.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the course and policy of the Administration at Washington merit and obtain our earnest, honest approval. Putting aside all local prejudices which were sought to be forced upon him, and acting full up to the great Democratic and truly republican principles of popular sovereignty, State Rights, and a Constitution strictly construed, Franklin Pierce has manifested himself the President of the Nation, not of a party. He lives in the hearts of all national men. He will live on a bright page in our country's history, as a statesman, who, despite the fanaticism and false patriotism raging wildly around him, with cool deliberation and calm judgment, marked out his course, and, with fixedness of purpose, pursued it.

Resolved, That the Hon. James Buchanan is a Statesman of whom, as Pennsylvanians and Americans, we feel a worthy pride, and that the Pennsylvania Democracy owe it to themselves, and to their noble Keystone state, to send to the Cincinnati convention a united delegation to support for the Presidency, first, last, and all the time, James Buchanan.

Resolved, That the selection of the Hon. G. M. Dallas to represent our republican empire of the west, near the Court of St. James, meets our hearty approval. A worthy successor of James Buchanan, he will support our National rights and national dignity, with personal dignity, ability and zeal.

Resolved, That we congratulate Pennsylvania and the Union on the election of the Hon. Wm. Bigler to the United States Senate. Not depreciating the merit of others, the choice could have fallen on none more worthy the high position. He will prove himself, as the Democracy of the State has proved herself, free from fanaticism and sectionalism.

Resolved, That we approve of the Kansas-Nebraska enactment of 1854, and recognize as a truly Democratic and safe principle the doctrine of popular Sovereignty. Citizens of a free and Sovereign State, we hold the faith that we, the people of the State, and we only, have the right to determine our institutions and laws, and we freely yield to the people of other States and Territories the same right of determining for themselves.

Resolved, That Pennsylvania now has Legislators for whom she need not blush; whose characters and abilities bring no tingle of shame to her brow.

Resolved, That we are earnestly opposed to any further increase of the number of Banks of issue of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, As the unanimous sense of this meeting, that the "Jug Law," odious in itself, yet more odious as having been enacted contrary to the wishes of the people fairly expressed at the ballot-box, ought to give place to a judicious license law.

Resolved, That for the bastard, and false Americanism, styled know-nothingism, we have no sympathy. We look upon it as the child of bigotry and craven fear; as anti-American, anti-Republican, anti-Protestant, unchristian, and against the spirit of the Constitution. We need not war against it. It wants but to be let alone to die a speedy death. The icy fingers of the grim monster are already grappling with its heart strings—if it has any.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the election of Henry S. Magraw to be State Treasurer; an able Lawyer, and a man of sterling integrity, he is eminently suited for the position.

Resolved, That for the Hon. Isaac Hugus, we feel a warm regard, as an unflinching Democrat, and clever gentleman, and an honest man, worthy to fill any position in the gift of a free people.

Resolved, That in George W. Bowman, Bedford County has a good citizen, Pennsylvania an able Adjutant General, and Democracy a fearless champion.

Resolved, That Wilson Reilly fought a good fight in the last Congressional campaign, and we are "to the fore" when he tries it again, and that, S. H. Tate, D. A. T. Black, and Thos. H. Murray be conferees in connection with conferees from the other counties of the district to nominate a candidate for Congress, and that they be instructed to support Wilson Reilly.

Resolved, That John P. Reed, Maj. Saml. Davis, and John Hafer be conferees to meet thoes from Somerset and Fulton to select a Senatorial delegate to the ensuing 4th March convention, and that they be instructed to support Wm. M. Hall as Senatorial Delegate.

On motion of G. W. Bowman,

Resolved, unanimously, That copies of the resolution this evening passed on the subject of the Jug Law, be forwarded to the Hon. Speakers of the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, with the request that they lay the same before the respective bodies over which they preside, as the deliberate judgment of the Democracy of Bedford county—and that Wm. M. Hall, Esq. be requested to perform this duty.

Resolved, That our Delegates to the 4th of March Convention be instructed to support Hon. Thos. J. Rehrer, for Surveyor General. [Signed by the Officers.]

The Municipal Election.

The election in this City, on Tuesday last, resulted in the almost entire prostration of the Know-Nothing party. We carried our candidate for Mayor, Mr. Zimmerman, by a majority of 206 votes, three of the five Select Council, and thirteen of the fifteen Common Council, which gives the Democrats a large majority on joint ballot; we also elected one Alderman, three Assessors, three Judges, three Inspectors and two Constables—thus reversing the whole order of things as they have existed here for the last twelve months.

Had the vote been larger, our victory would have been still more complete and overwhelming: but the extreme severity of the weather kept many of our voters from the polls. As it is, however, our Democratic friends did a good day's work. The Know-Nothings are now prostrated in the city of Lancaster, and hereafter we shall have no trouble with them. In redeeming the City from the dominion of the Nicht Wissers we had the hearty co-operation and aid of a number of patriotic Whigs, who came forward boldly and fearlessly to assist in defeating the unscrupulous enemy. These gentlemen deserve the gratitude of our Democratic friends—and we trust that hereafter they will be found in the Democratic ranks fighting shoulder to shoulder with us in opposition to intolerance, proscription, black republicanism, and every other ism that has cursed our country for the last two years.—Lancaster Intelligencer, Feb. 12.

Sale of State Arsenals.

Mr. CRESSWELL read in place, a few days since, the following bill:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Adjutant General be and he is hereby authorized to sell and convey to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, in fee simple, the arsenal property at Meadville, and all and singular the lot of ground and real estate thereunto belonging, and pay into the State Treasury the proceeds thereof.

Sec. 2. That the Adjutant General is hereby authorized to remove the stores and arms in the Arsenals in Philadelphia and Meadville to the arsenal at Harrisburg.

D. eighteen hundred and fifty three, entitled an act "to provide for the ordinary repairs of Government, the repair of the public canals and rail-roads, and other general and special appropriations," that authorizes the Governor to purchase a lot thereon to erect an arsenal, be and the same is hereby repealed.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

House of Representatives, Wednesday, Feb. 6.—Mr. SMITH, of Cambria, moved that the House take up the bill to incorporate the Franciscan brothers, of Cambria county, which was agreed to.

The bill was read in committee of the whole, when Mr. Mumma moved that the committee rise, report progress, and ask leave to sit again.

Mr. Mumma called attention to the fact that the courts have power to incorporate this company, and that under one of the joint rules its consideration was out of order.

Mr. SMITH said:—Mr. Speaker, this bill was among the first read in place this session, and I have deferred calling it up out of order, hoping that after a number of bills of the same kind had been passed, the gentleman opposing it would withdraw his objections, and allow it to pass also; but in that I have been mistaken. He has had it struck off the calendar; and I now ask to have it acted upon.

This school has the reputation of being a most excellent one. A large number of orphan boys are kept and educated there; indeed, the essential purpose of the institution is the care and education of friendless orphan boys. The court has not the power to incorporate this society and exempt it from taxation, or they would not have applied to the Legislature for an act of incorporation. Almost every academy of learning in the State is exempted from taxation. Bills of the same character have been passed by this House this session, and why should not this bill pass? If there was any thing unusual asked for in this bill—if there was any thing wrong about it I would not have introduced it—but it is right, it is just, and I hope the House will pass it.

Mr. McComb said that one of the joint rules provided that no company should be incorporated by the Legislature which the courts had the power to incorporate. The clear income of this corporation, it was provided in the bills should not exceed $3000 yearly, which was clearly within the purview of the court. The courts had not the power to release from taxation, and he hoped this House would not adopt this principle.

Mr. Wright, of Luzerne, said he could not vote for this bill in its present shape. It did not specify the number of acres the corporation may hold. The courts have not the power to incorporate this company, for its progress was different from those specified in the act giving the courts power. It combined several of these purposes, and was of course beyond the reach of the courts.

Mr. Smith could not state the number of acres the association held or desire to hold.

After further remarks from Mr. Foster, Mr. Mumma withdrew his motion.

Mr. Wright moved to limit the land to be held by the company to five hundred acres, which was agreed to.

The bill was further debated by Messrs. Mumma, Getz, McComb, and Ingham, when the first section was agreed to.

The second section was read, when

Mr. Augustine moved to add to it a proviso that no one shall be excluded from said institution on sectarian grounds.

Which, after some remarks from Messrs. Wright and McComb, was accepted by Mr. Smith. The section as amended was agreed to; also the remaining section. The bill was reported to the House as amended, and was taken up on second reading, and the question being on the first section,

Mr. Phelps held that the court had complete power over the question, and quoted various acts of assembly to prove it.

Mr. McCalmont opposed the passage of the bill, and stated that he believed the society asking to be incorporated was a society of Jesuits—a den of VIPERS—instilling the worst kind of Anti-American feelings and sentiments into the minds of the youths.

Mr. SMITH, of Cambria, replied:

Mr. Speaker—I cannot suffer the unjust imputations which have been cast upon the character of a certain class of my constituency, by the gentleman from Venango, to pass unnoticed. The gentleman has seen fit to wander out of his way, to indulge in an uncalled for, illiberal, and, I must say, most unmanly fling, at a certain religious class of my constituency.

[Here Mr. McCalmont explained.]

I understood the gentleman that this institution was a viper in our midst—an institution where the most dangerous anti-republican doctrines were instilled into the minds of our American youth.

Mr. Speaker—That class of citizens at whom the gentleman is driving, and whom I have the honor to represent, are in every ennobling attribute, as far above the illiberal bigot who would traduce them, as it is possible for the most exalted, virtuous mind to be above the lowest grovelling panderer to notoriety.

Mr. Speaker—No county in our glorious old commonwealth can boast a community of men with braver hearts—with a greater reverence for our republican institutions—with a more steadfast devotion to the principles of our Government—or who are characterized for more meritorious deeds, than the catholics of Cambria county. Reared in the vallies and upon the hill tops of the cloud-capped Alleghenies, their hearts are as pure, and their spirits are as free as the healthful breezes which dance upon their mountain summits.

Mr. Speaker—I feel proud of my entire constituency, and none the less of that portion whom the gentleman has contemptuously stigmatized as vipers, as men who were instilling their anti-American feelings and principles into the minds of our youth.

Mr. Speaker—When our country was at war with a Catholic enemy, Catholic Cambria sent a greater ratio of daring spirits to defend our country's honor in that war, than any other county in this State, or than any county in any other State in the Union, who, among the bravest of the brave, carved their way in blood from Vera Cruz into the very heart of the proud Capital of the Aztecs. There are gentlemen on this floor who can corroborate all I have said of the loyalty and bravery of the Catholics of Cambria county.

Mr. Speaker—As I said before, no braver or more loyal subjects can our country boast than the Catholic sons of Cambria, and as long as the banner of freedom floats in triumph over any portion of our broad domain, will its bright folds be unfurled to the breeze on the lofty peaks of the eternal Alleghenies, the home of the Catholics of Cambria. Republicanism and constitutional liberty will ever find a dwelling in their noble hearts, and the lustre of their character will brighten with every new occasion that many call their loyalty and chivalry into action.

Mr. Speaker—I regret that anything should have been said to force me in the defence of any portion of my constituency: but I could not sit still and hear their characters so willfully maligned.

The discussion was continued by Messrs. LOTT, MORRIS, M'COMB, BALDWIN, and M'CALMONT up to adjournment.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

The Express train for the west, which left the depot at Eleventh and Market streets, at eleven o'clock last night, met with a disastrous accident about half a mile from Hestonville, in the 24th ward. The train, which consisted of the locomotive, baggage car and two passenger cars, was going up a heavy grade at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour, when a rail that had probably been rendered brittle by the intense cold, broke in three places, throwing the front wheels of the forward car off the track. These wheels were, however, drawn upon the rails again, and this car afterwards obtained its position upon the track.

The second car was thrown from the track, and the forward axle breaking, the car with all its occupants, was precipitated down an embankment about thirty feet high. The car in its descent, struck a large tree at the bottom. The concussion split the car open and threw many of the passengers to the ground, and enabled most of the others to escape from the wreck. Had the car not broken to pieces the consequences would have been more frightful, as there was a very hot fire in the stove. The blazing contents of the stove were scattered through the car in its descent, and in a few minutes the latter was in flames.

A great number of the passengers were more or less hurt. Out of about fifty in the car, twenty-seven were wounded. But one passenger was killed. He was found lying upon his back with a portion of the wreck pressing heavily upon his neck and the upper part of his breast. He lived for about an hour after being extracted from the ruins, but was insensible during this period. The deceased was not known, but from papers in his pocket, and the initials upon his shirt, he is believed to be Mr. Abraham B. Hart, of the firm of Wm. B. Hart & Son, merchants of Cincinnati, Ohio. The name of A. B. Hart is also upon a trunk among the baggage, which is supposed to have belonged to the deceased.

As soon as possible, the wounded, and the passengers who escaped unhurt, were got into the remaining passenger car and the baggage car, and brought back to the city. Every possible attention was paid to the wants of the wounded. The latter were taken to the different hotels and to private houses, and it is therefore impossible to obtain a correct list of those who were injured or of the extent of their injuries; we have procured, however, the names of those who have been most seriously hurt.

Mr. T. S. Watson, merchant of St. Louis, was badly hurt. He was taken to the Girard House where it was found that his right leg and thigh were broken, and he was also cut and bruised in almost all of his body. It is thought he will recover from his injuries. Mr Watson was among the wounded at the recent frightful accident at the Gasconade river, on the line of the Pacific railroad. He was just recovering from the injuries received upon that occasion when he met with this mishap.

Mr. D. A. Finney of the State Senate, was also in the car that was broken. He received some severe external bruises, but his injuries are not considered dangerous. He is also at the Girard.

Mr. E. G. Fahnestock, of Gettysburg, was badly bruised. He received a wound under the right eye, which extends down to the neck, cutting through the flesh and laying bare the bone. He was taken to the house of his brother-in-law, Dr. John Cox, in Arch st., near Sixteenth. He was doing very well this morning.

The Rev. Anson Rood, of this city, was among the wounded. He received a cut in the head, and was considerably bruised. He was taken to the Allegheny House, but he was able to be out this morning, From Mr. Rood we obtained many particulars of the disaster.

Another of the wounded was taken to the Allegheny House, but he was well enough to start West this morning.

A German, named Nicholas Scherer, who was a passenger on the train, had his arm cut, and was bruised about the hands and head. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

The body of the passenger who was killed was taken to the residence of Robert R. Bringhurst, undertaker, No 20 North Eleventh st., where it was placed in ice. The coroner held an inquest on the remains, and after the examination of several witnesses, a verdict was rendered, which set forth that the death of the deceased was caused by the overturning of a car from the breaking of a rail, &c.

The deceased appears to have been about twenty-eight years of age. He was a stout, thick set man, not over five feet six inches in height. He has light brown hair, and wore no beard or whiskers. His clothing consisted of a dark frock-coat, black overcoat, black cassimere vest, fancy cassimere pants, and double-soled pegged boots.

The conductor on the train, and most of the passengers who were uninjured, exerted themselves to the utmost to render aid to the wounded. Among those whom we have heard spoken of as rendering very efficient service, were Mr. Hambright, the conductor, and Mr. Stokes, of Pittsburg.

The persons in the first car escaped the slightest injury. The coupling of the cars fortunately broke, or the consequences would have been still more disastrous.

Those who were present at the scene, speak of the rapidity with which the flames spread through the broken car. In two minutes from the time of the accident, it was wrapped in flames, and the light caused by it gave rise to a general alarm of fire in West Philadelphia.

The intensity of the cold heightened the sufferings of the wounded. There was no house near the spot, and the only place of refuge was the remaining passenger and baggage car.

MORE PARDONS.

Some time ago three Philadelphia policemen, named Gregory, Barr and Fearheller, were convicted of cruelly assaulting several men at the polls on last election day, and sentenced to the Penitentiary by Judge Kelly, of the Court of Quarter Sessions. Hon. Robert M. Foust, Hon. Wm. Milward, Hon. Isaac Hazlehurst and John P. Verree, Esq., prominent Know-Nothing politicians in the Quaker City, represented by letter to Gov. Pollock that Gregory and Barr were unjustly convicted, when his Excellency pardoned them, but allowed Fearheller to remain in limbo. The two former are young men without families, and are said to have been the most guilty, while the latter has a wife and several small children dependent upon him for support.

In view of these facts the counsel who procured their conviction on Saturday week made a motion that Judge Kelly should reconsider his sentence of Fearheller; but his Honor declined, alleging that two wrongs never made a right. He, however, commented in severe terms on the action of those "honorable men" who wrote a letter stating the conviction to be unjust and illegal, when in reality they had not been in the court room during the [illegible] time of the trial. The Governor in these cases, as in the pardon of Dr. Beale, gave as a reason for the exercise of his clemency that it had been represented (and he was satisfied of its truth) that the prisoners had been wrongly convicted.

Such imputations on the justice of Judges and juries will have a tendency to impair confidence in the administration of the laws; for will not every whipster debate the fairness of this or that judge whose action has been held up to reproach by the highest official in the Commonwealth? It is right enough to exercise the Executive clemency sometimes; but the propriety of the Governor declaring a party to be unjustly convicted is very doubtful.

One of the queerest freaks of the present very queer Congress, was the re-election of Mr. A. J. Glossbrenner, of York, as Sergeant-at-Arms, by a vote of 103 to 98. He is a thorough, unscrupulous Nebraska Democrat—a firm disciple of President Pierce, whose party cannot poll over one-third of the House on a strict party issue; and yet he is chosen to one of the most important and lucrative positions in the gift of the House. What reason will be assigned in justification of this singular vote, we cannot conjecture. Congress will hardly desire the public to believe that they re-elected Mr. Glossbrenner because he advanced them money liberally before they could draw any from the Treasury, for that would be a confession of the weakness of Congressional virtue of which few would be proud; and if it is added that Mr. Glossbrenner shaved their bills and made a "good thing out of it," while his money cost him nothing in the way of interest, the aspect of the case is not materially improved. And yet some such explanation must be accepted, or the House must be regarded as largely anti-administration one day, and soundly administration the next. How is it?—From the Harrisburg Telegraph.

MARRIED:

On the 12th inst., by the Rev. F. Benedict, Mr. Charles Hiligas, of Montgomery co, Pa., and Miss Amanda Sproat, of Somerset Co. Pa.

On the 5th ult. at the house of J. B. Blackburn, by John Smith, Esq., Mr. James Hughs, of Harrison tp. to Miss Sarah Miller, of Napier township, Bedford Co. Pa.

DIED,

On the 3d inst. at his residence in Cumberland Valley, Mr. Walter Brown, aged 74 years, one month and three days.

The deceased was a native of Derbyshire, England, but immigrated to this country in the year 1819, and became an esteemed citizen of Bedford county for many years. He was alike venerable for age and respected for his integrity of character. He was also a sincere Christian, and led an exemplary life. During the last few months of his life, previous to his last illness, he was much engaged in private devotions, and spent the greater part of his time in reading, prayer and praise.

His illness, although it lasted but a few days, yet was one of much suffering, which he bore with perfect resignation to the will of God, and his end was peaceful and tranquil, for he quietly fell asleep in the arms of the Saviour, to await the resurrection morn.

MINERAL WATER, FROM THE
Artesian Well, St. Catharines,
CANADA WEST.

The reputation which this water has acquired as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Liver and Kidney complaints, want of action in the digestive and Urinary organs, Pains, weak Joints, Palsy, scrofula, and the many complaints which females are subject to, is a certain guarantee that they will find almost immediate relief by its internal use in connection with the bath.

The proprietor has in his possession numerous certificates of the cures performed. The wife of a physician eminent in his profession, for many years labored under "PROLAPSUS UTERI," or falling of the womb: before using the waters of the Artesian well she was unable to walk, but after its use for a short time, she was entirely restored to health.

The water as offered for sale is strongly concentrated and free from any drug or foreign admixture, so that a tea-poonful mixed in a half pint of cold water is a sufficient dose for an adult.

By mixing one-half of a 50 cent bottle of the Canada mineral water in a tub of fresh water of the proper temperature, a perfect bath is formed from which all the benefits of a regular Saline Bathing House can be secured at home.

For sale in large bottles, price $1, small do. 50 cts. by R. B. JONES, Jr.
77 Dock, street, Philadelphia, sole agent for Penn'a.

The water will be sent by express to any part of the state, by remitting the amount in money or postage stamps.

Bedford Academy
AND
FEMALE SEMINARY.
W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.

The 1st Session of the 5th school year of this Institution will open on Monday morning the 3d day of September. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To MASTER PRINCIPLES will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with innumerable formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to THINK.

N. B. Instruction in Book Keeping in all its branches, both Single and Double Entry will be given by the Principal. The Class in this study will be so arranged that any young men desiring to pursue this important branch in order to prepare themselves for clerkships can recite in it alone. This recitation will receive attention out of the regular school hours. Instruction in this branch will be extra and so charged.

We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.

Terms per quarter, as usual, to wit:

CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

No. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

J. D. SPRING, Laceyville, Pa., April 6, 1854, says: "I can get you some good certificates for your German Bitters in this vicinity if you wish them. A lady purchasing some of it this week, says that it is by far the best medicine she ever knew, having done her and her daugh- much good, &c."

S. B. LAWSON, Benfard's Store, Somerset Co., Pa., August 15, 1853, says: "I am much attached to your German Bitters, having used two bottles of it, which I procured from S. Kurtz, your agent at Somerset, and found great relief from in disease of the Liver. I find it has great effect upon my lungs, strengthening and invigorating them, which, as I am a public speaker, is a great help to me."

DR. GILES, Newton Hamilton, Pa., May, 1851, said: I have used myself half a dozen bottles of your German Bitters for Liver complaint and diseases of a nervous character, resulting from the abuse of mercury. I was poisoned and afflicted with spasms from the use of this latter article. The German Bitters is the first article from which I obtained any relief. I have also given the article to many dyspeptics, with the most salutary result. I think as many more bottles will cure me."

J. C. YOUNG, Esq., of Dauphin, Pa., writes May 5, 1851: "I was afflicted with General Debility, Intestinal weakness and Costiveness, for which I used many different remedies without relief. I at last used your Hoofland's German Bitters. I took a few bottles according to directions, and was completely cured. I have not been so healthy for ten years as I have been since I took your Bitters, which is about one year ago."

The Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, always strengthening the system and never prostrating it.

Sold by dealers in medicine and storekeepers everywhere. And by

HEMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated

Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu,

For Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weaknesses, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

THE FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU has been pronounced by eminent Physicians THE GREATEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and, unlike other remedies, it does not dry up the disease in the blood.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, acting both as a cure and preventative.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished Physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our Public Institutions which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible Physicians and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

Prices—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle.
" " Sarsaparilla " "
or 6 bottles for $5, equal in strength to one gallon Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Prepared and Sold by H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist 263, Chestnut Street, near the Girard House, PHILAEDLPHIA.

☞To be had of Dr. F. C. Reamer, Bedford, Pa.

Bedford Academy

AND

FEMALE SEMINARY.

W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.

The 1st Session of the 5th school year of this Institution will open on Monday morning the 3d day of September. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To MASTER PRINCIPLES will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with innumerable formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to THINK.

N. B. Instruction in Book Keeping in all its branches, both Single and Double Entry will be given by the Principal. The Class in this study will be so arranged that any young men desiring to pursue this important branch in order to prepare themselves for clerkships can recite in it alone. This recitation will receive attention out of the regular school hours. Instruction in this branch will be extra and so charged.

We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.

Terms per quarter, as usual, to wit:

" GET THE BEST."

Webster's Quarto Dictionary.

What more essential to every family, counting room, student, and indeed every one who would know the right use of language—the meaning, orthography, and pronunciation of words, than a good English Dictionary?—of daily necessity and permanent value. WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED is now the recognized Standard, "constantly recited and relied on in our Courts of Justice, in our legislative bodies, and in public discussions, as entirely conclusive," says Hon. JOHN C. SPENCER.
